This 10-year Guarantee applies in addition to the statutory rights to which the purchaser is entitled vis-à-vis the seller of the Appliance in case of defects (liability for defects, warranty), which the purchaser can claim free of charge, and does not restrict these rights. Likewise, it does not limit other warranties from NAA or third parties.

2. The guarantee period begins with the handover of the Appliance to the purchaser who purchased the Appliance for the purpose of first-time use.
3. The guarantee period shall neither be renewed nor extended by a service under the guarantee.

IV. Conditions of the 10-year Guarantee and enforcement

Liebherr shall provide the Liebherr Guarantee if the following conditions are demonstrably jointly met:

2. The Appliance is installed within the scope of the 10-year Guarantee.
3. The Appliance was registered via the registration website under home.liebherr.com within 90 days of purchase (limitation period). Qualifying appliances purchased between 1st March 2024 and 1st June 2024 have an extended period of registration, but must be registered within 180 days of purchase.

4. The proof of purchase for the Appliance in accordance with IV. 3. must be presented to the NAA customer service personnel, prior to a booking being made.

1. The NAA customer service department or an authorised NAA customer service centre shall rectify any defects in the Appliance which occur during the guarantee period which are demonstrably due to material or manufacturing defects free of charge and shall bear the associated costs, in particular, labour and travel costs as well as any additional repair materials required. If there is a defect in parts of the interior fittings, handles or covering panels, NAA reserves the right to send the owner the corresponding spare parts for self-assembly free of charge.
2. The NAA Guarantee does not grant any claims against NAA over and above this rectification of defects.
3. If the repair is uneconomical or impossible, the owner shall receive an identical or comparable new Appliance (hereinafter referred to as the 'Replacement Appliance') in return for their defective Appliance. If the Appliance is replaced by NAA under the 10-year Guarantee, the remaining warranty period of the 10-year Guarantee shall be transferred to the Replacement Appliance.

vi. Exclusion and expiry of the 10-year Guarantee

3. The 10-year Guarantee shall expire if the type plate or the Appliance number has been removed, tampered with or made illegible, regardless of by whom, or if parts of third-party origin, in particular spare parts that do not originate from NAA or Liebherr, or are not suitable for use in or on the Appliance, have been installed or attached to the Appliance.
